

You Are Invited to a Special Screening of Very Young Girls

A Showtime documentary film depicting the realities of sex trafficking in the U.S. with moving footage and searing testimonials

The film takes us into the work of a former sexually exploited youth-turned-activist named Rachel Lloyd, who started the New York City organization GEMS (Girls Educational and Mentoring Services) to help victimized young women escape their pimps and find another way of life. We meet teenaged girls at different stages of this transition. As we come to know these girls better, they emerge as well-rounded individuals full of unexpected laughter and insight.
